

Harris Alloys Training Workshop

This will be a hands-on training on aluminum-to-aluminum brazing, copper-to-copper brazing, and the proper safety, setup, and use of oxygen and fuel equipment. Technicians will learn the six fundamental steps for brazing and how to masterly braze and solder techniques for your application. Attendees will receive recommendations for equipment and consumables specific to each operation as well as a NATE Continuing Education Hour Credits for applicable courses

LIVE DEMO!

REGISTER: contact the branch and register with the information provided below

- Friday, May 3rd, 2024
- 8:00am to 10:00am at the Boise branch
- Presented by Ben Lewis of Harris
- Breakfast will be provided
- Cost: $15 per technician / No refunds for absentees

RSVP

Name: _____

PO #: _____

Company: _____

Email: _____

Phone Number: _____